

2019 Membership Information

Overview:

Guys Who Give Clay County is a philanthropic men's group, coordinated by the Clay County Community Foundation. The group is designed to provide financial support for charitable causes while creating a sense of community.

Membership Agreement:

Members commit to donate $500 annually. The first $100 is invested in an endowment fund in the Clay County Community Foundation that will be used to serve future needs of Clay County for years to come.

The remaining $400 is used to support the 4 nonprofits selected by the members throughout the year ($100 at each meeting). Members agree to honor their commitment even if they are not fond of the charity chosen. If they are unable to attend a quarterly meeting, they will give their check (which will serve as their proxy vote) to another member to deliver on their behalf, send their check to the Clay County Community Foundation or pay electronically via Wabash Valley Gives (www.wabashvalleygives.com).

Reduced-Cost Membership:

In an attempt to engage more young professionals in Guys Who Give, members age 40 and younger are eligible for a reduced-cost membership. Members in this age group may choose this option, resulting in an annual contribution of $250 ($50 for membership dues; $50 each quarter).

Meeting Dates:

The following are the quarterly meeting dates for 2019:

- March 12 – Elks Lodge
- June 11 – Elks Lodge

Each meeting will begin with a registration and a social hour starting at 5:15 p.m. The official meeting will begin at 5:45 p.m. and will conclude around 6:30 p.m.
